

Economic Times

NEW BOOK ON THE BLOCK

Date: 23-01-2009 | Edition: Chennai | Page: 3 | Source: Bureau | Clip size (cm): W: 13 H: 15

Clip: 1 of 1

Angel of God is a story of ordinary humans assuming the role of angels. The author has published several management books earlier, but this is her first fiction work. The book launch was attended by Ninan Thariyan, Associate Vice President and Response Head, The Times of India, Chennai; Minnie Menon and Kiruba Shankar, CEO F5ive Technologies and Head, Wikimedia Foundation-India among others. The book priced at Rs 199 is out on stands.

NEW BOOK ON THE BLOCK

The Angel of God, Jyothi Menon's first fiction book was recently launched in the city. Jyothi is currently Senior Vice President and Head of HR Shared Services at Standard Chartered Bank based out of Chennai. Her book is about a young urchin, born in Kerala who goes on to become an influential gangster in Mumbai. It's also the story of his relationships with different people in his life and how he plays an important role in transforming each of their lives. The

