Dear Ms. Jyothi Menon,

This is to congratulate you on your winning the prestigious J.C Award for the best novel of the year 2009.

I happily recall the good opportunity I had to formally release the book, ANGEL OF GOD at the grand function that was organized in Abu Dhabi.

I am sure, this is a recognition that is well deserved and it would encourage you to pursue your writing career with courage and confidence.

With best wishes and warm regards,

Adoor Gopalakrishnan
